

Cain Where Is Your Brother?

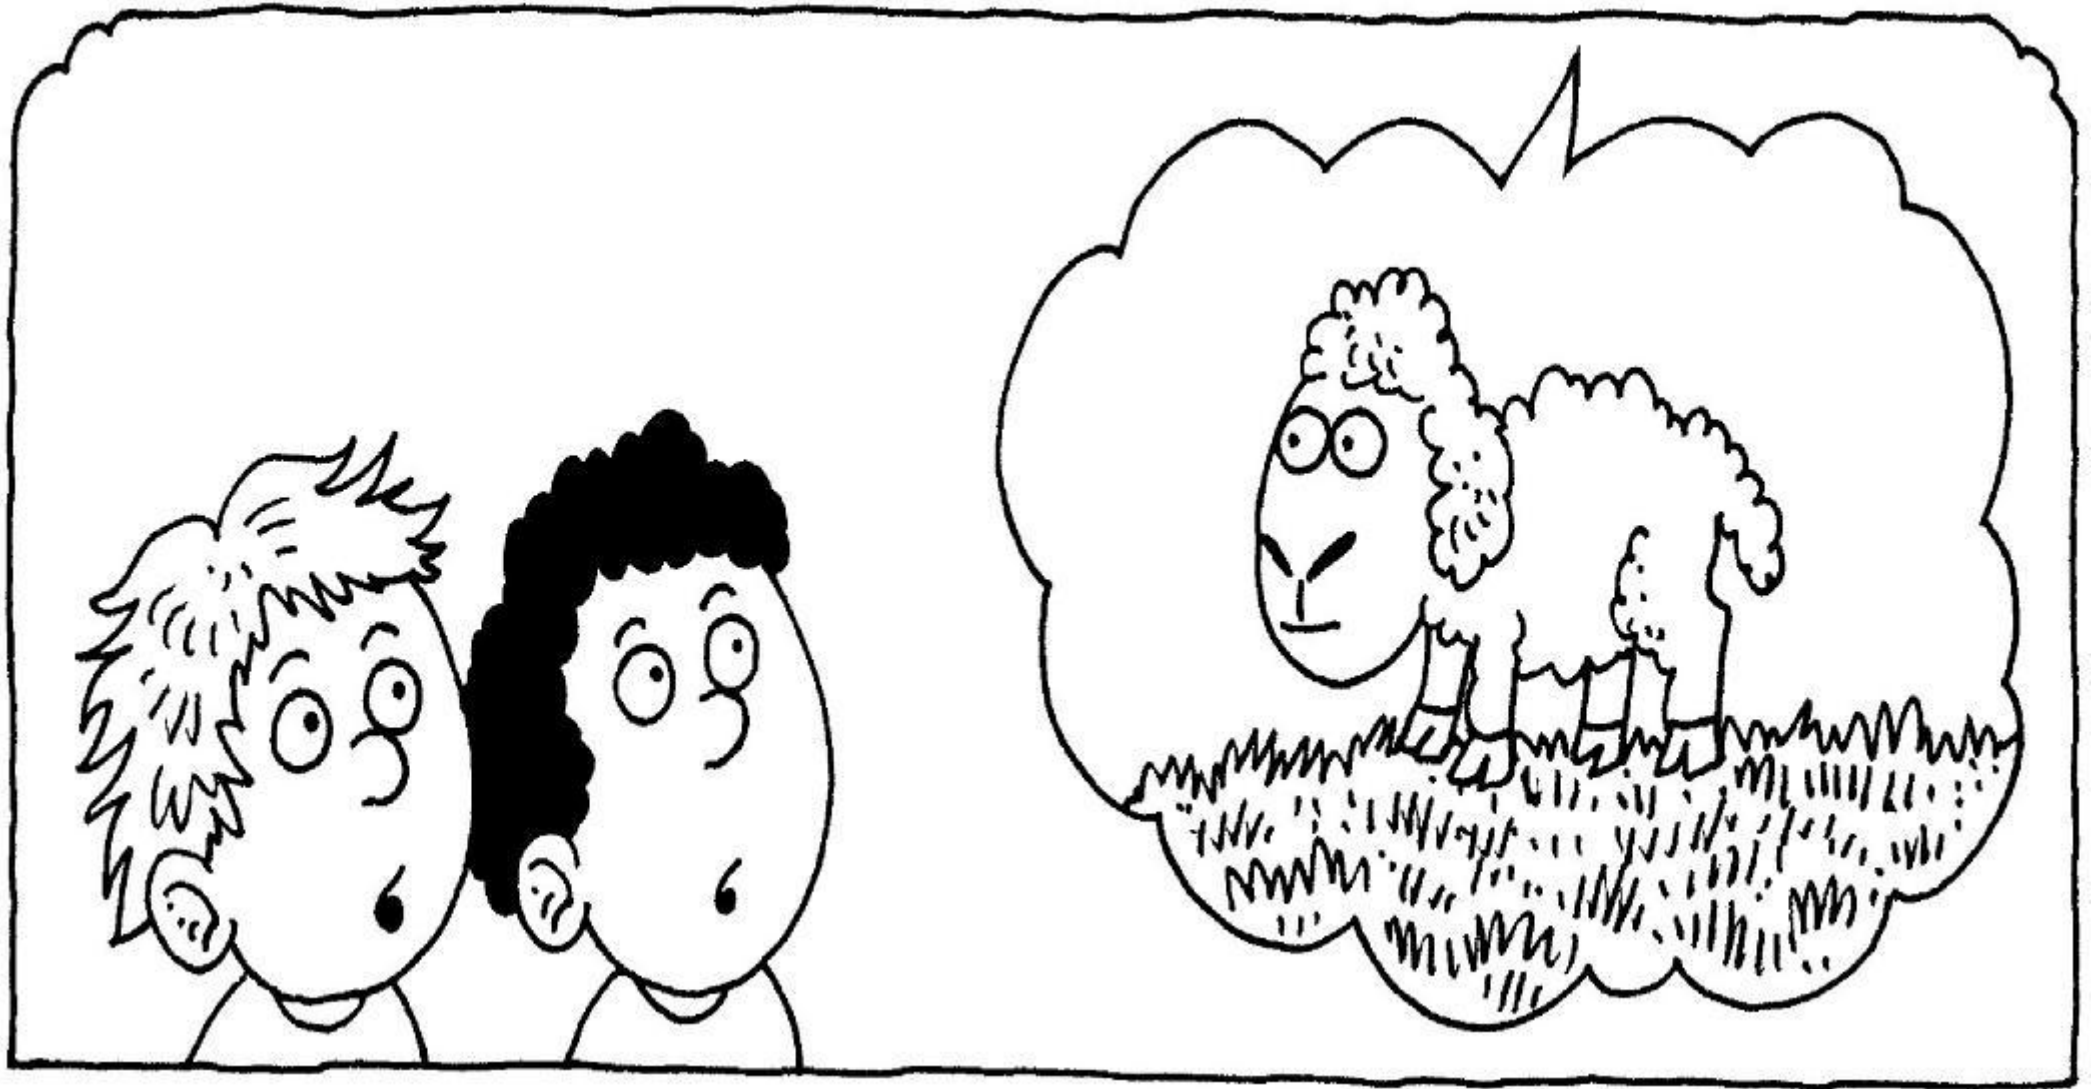

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

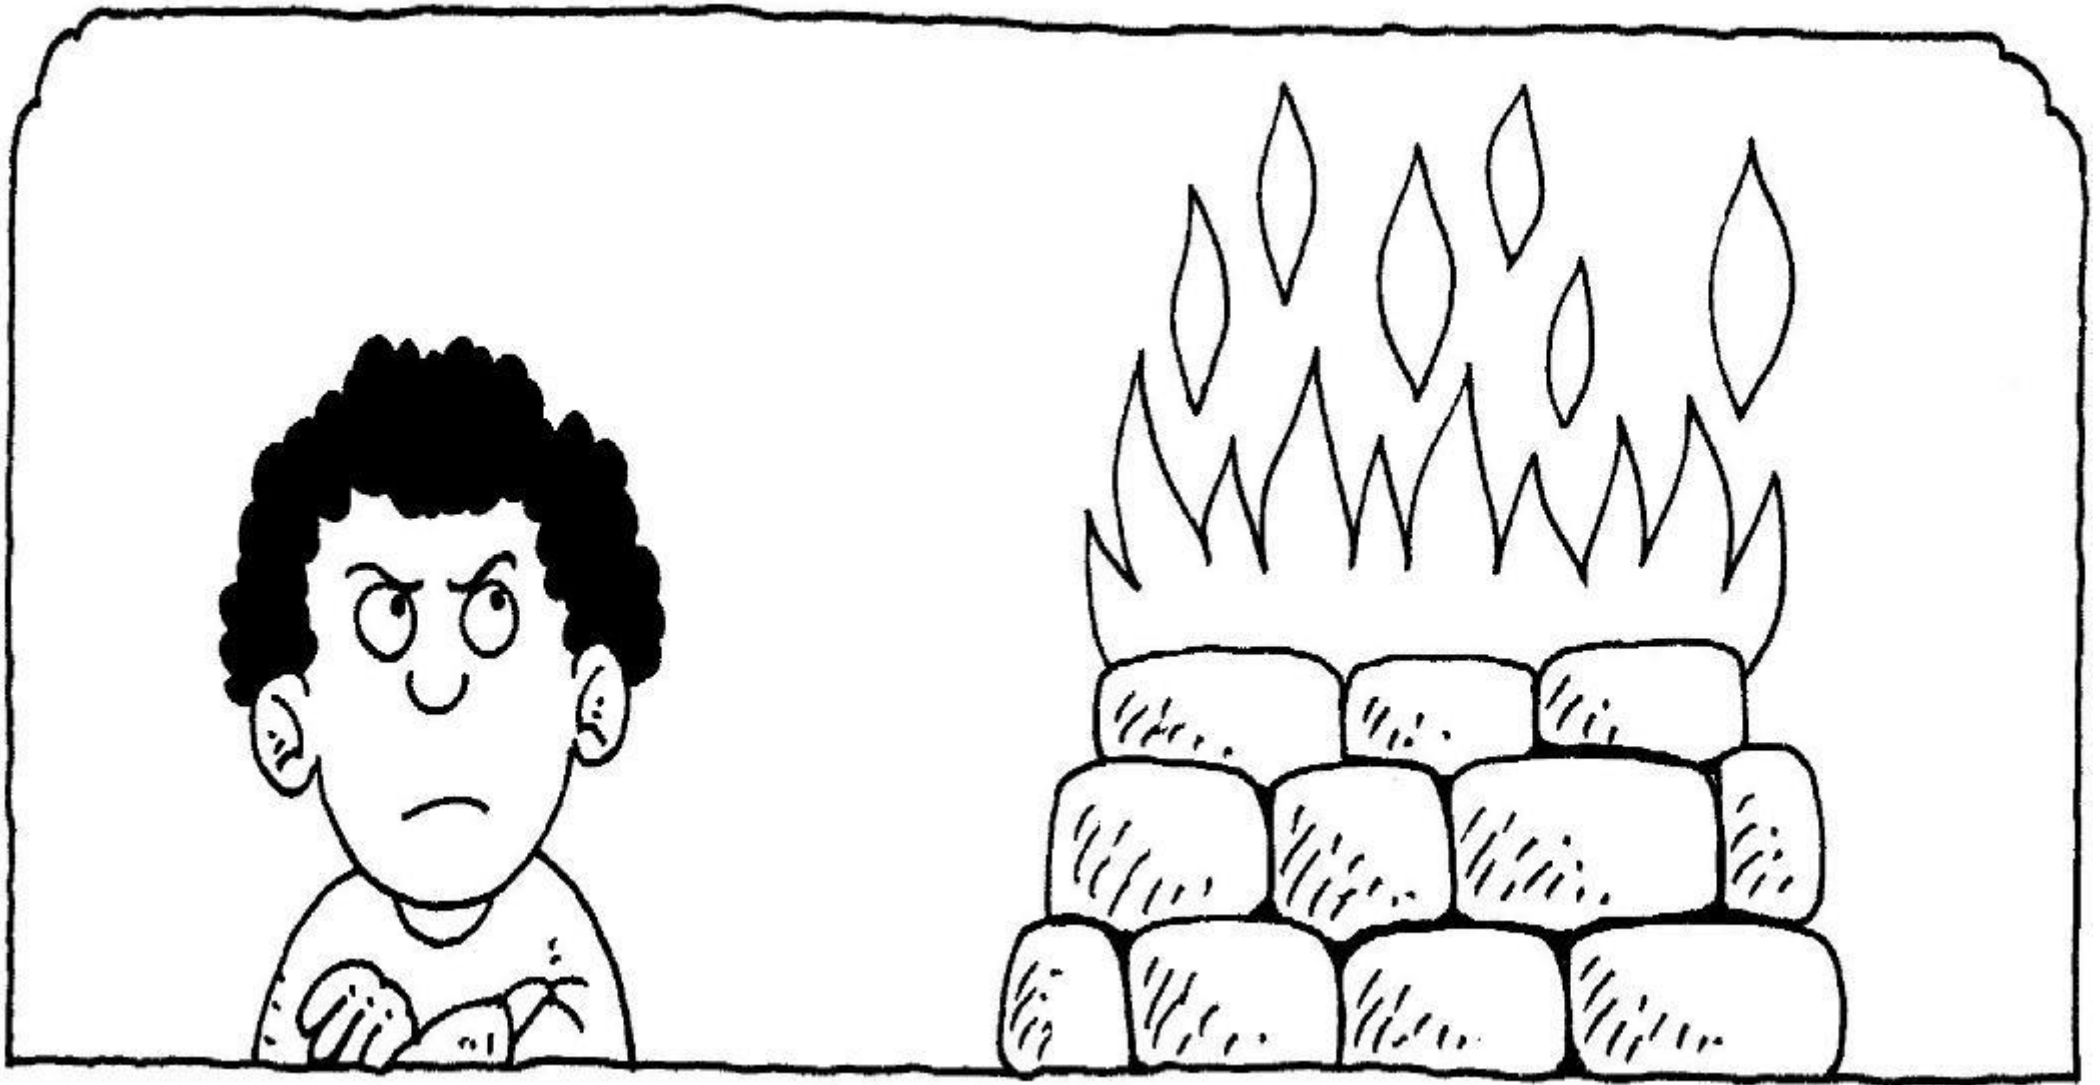

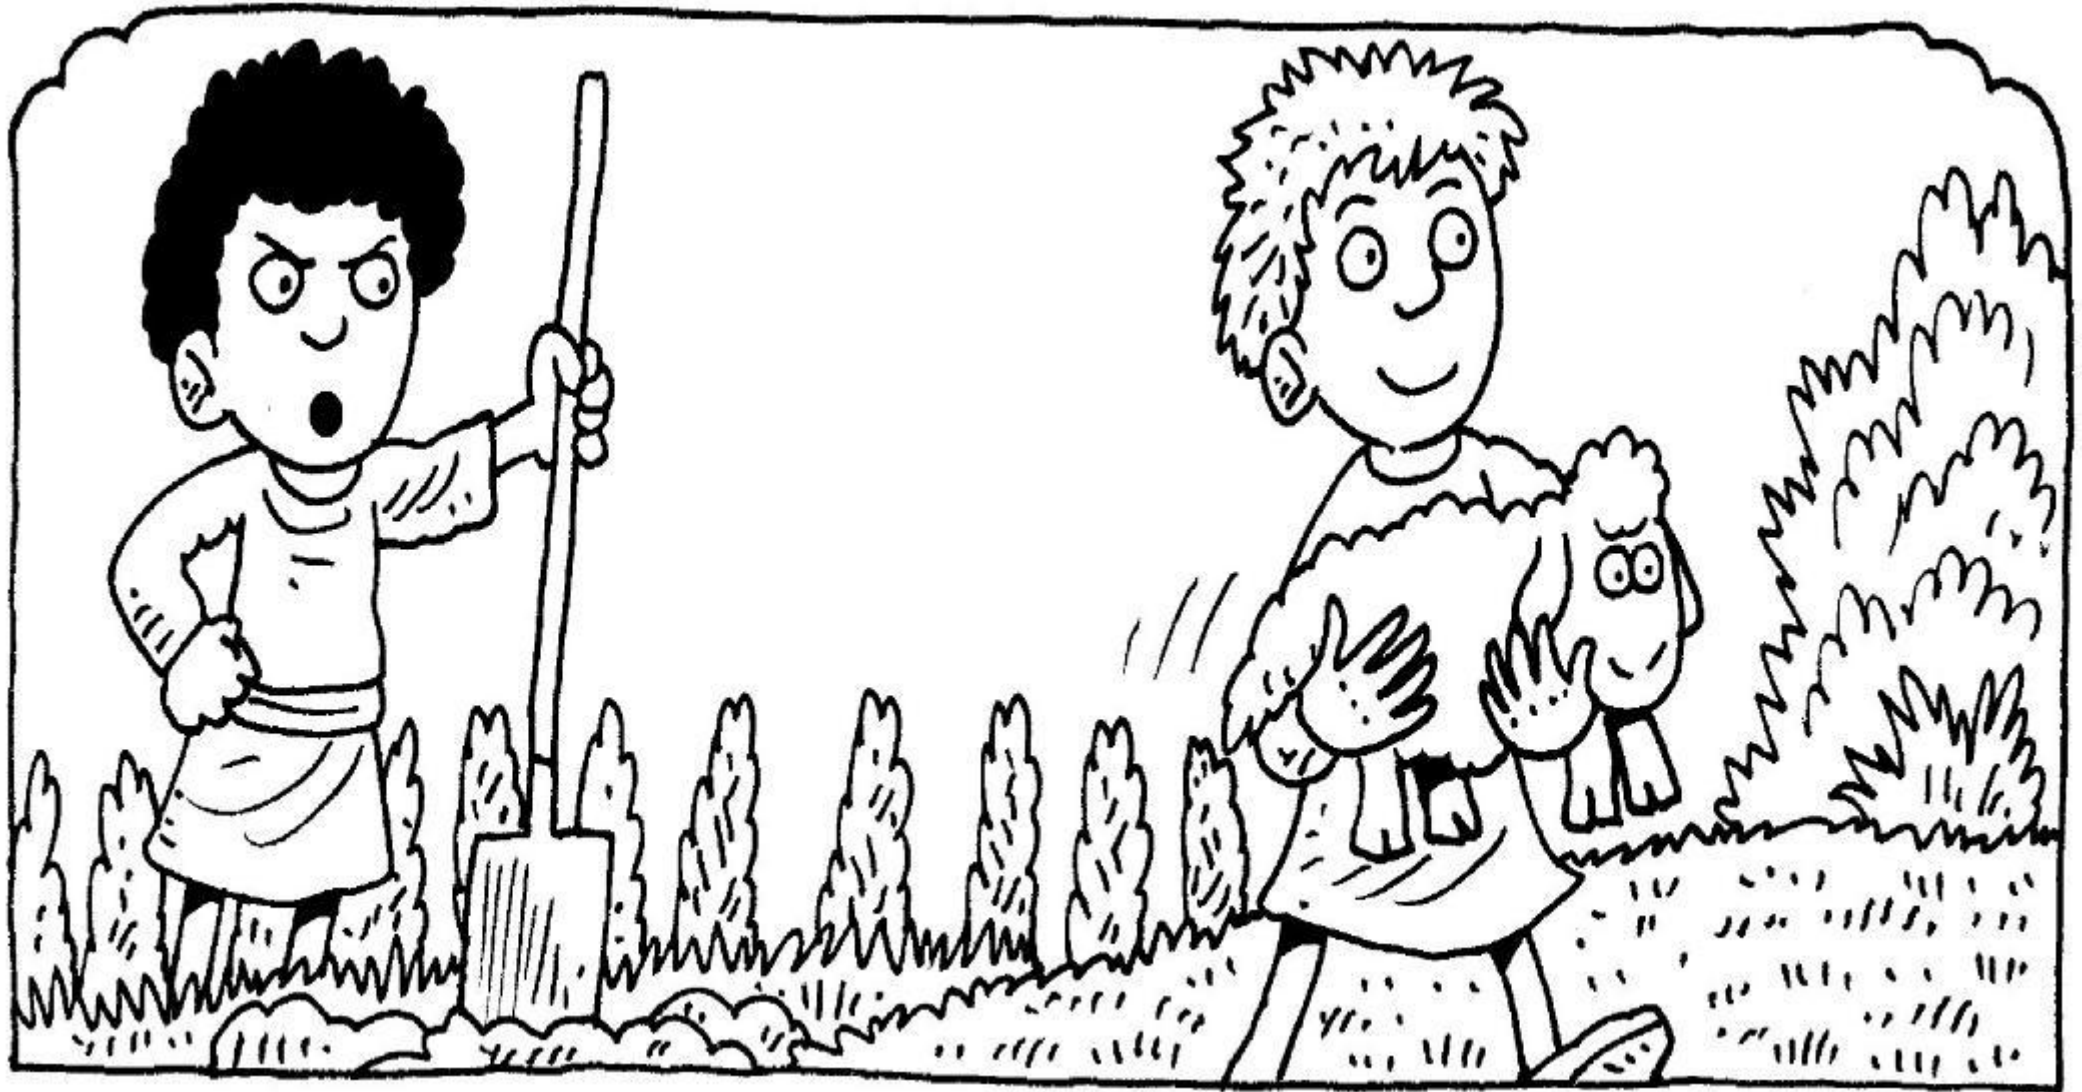

Adam and Eve had two boys.
Abel, the younger brother,
loved his sheep.
He took a lamb to give to God.

God saw how much Abel loved the lamb
and that he had given the best he had
as a present to God.

Cain, the older brother, knew that God had been pleased with his younger brother's gift of a lamb. It made him jealous of his brother.

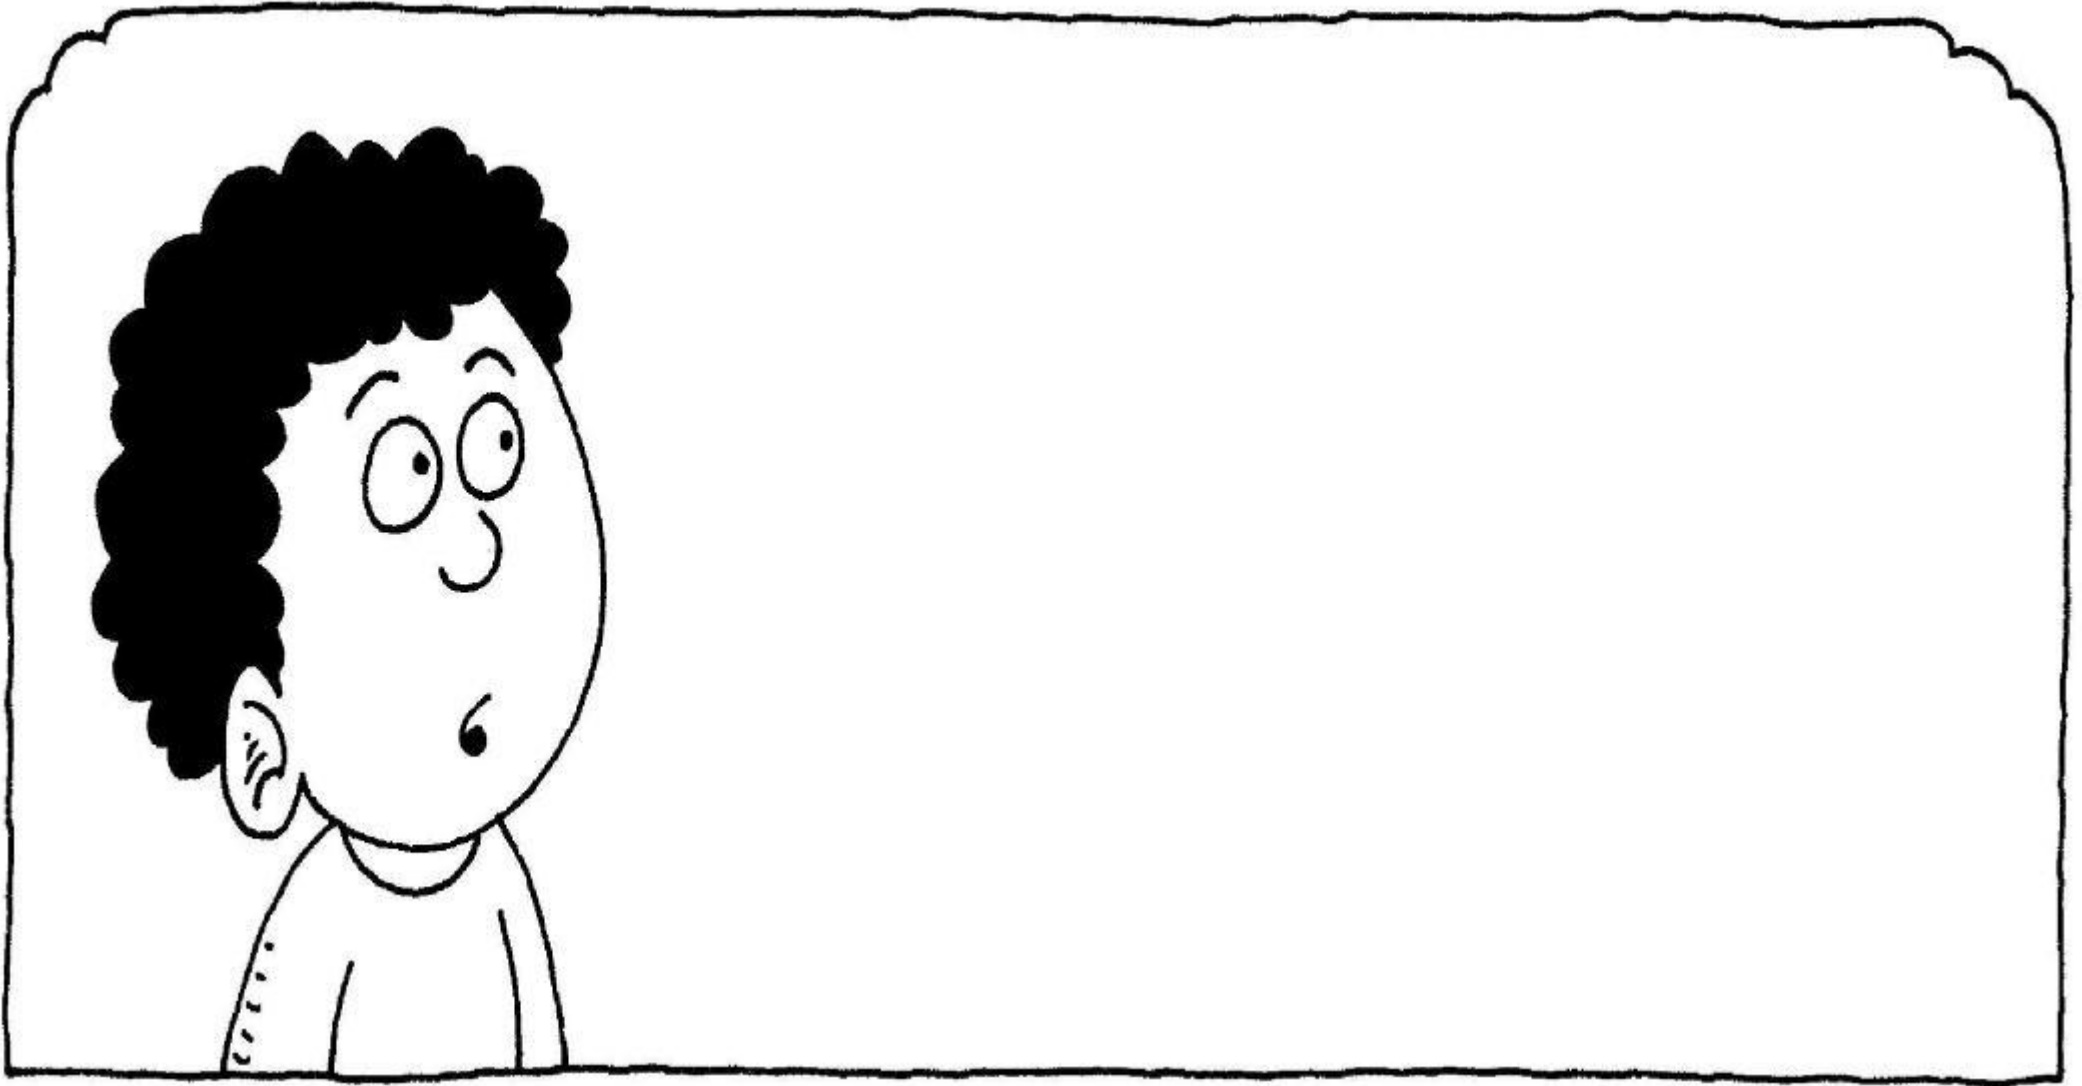

“I work hard and God should be pleased with me,” he thought.

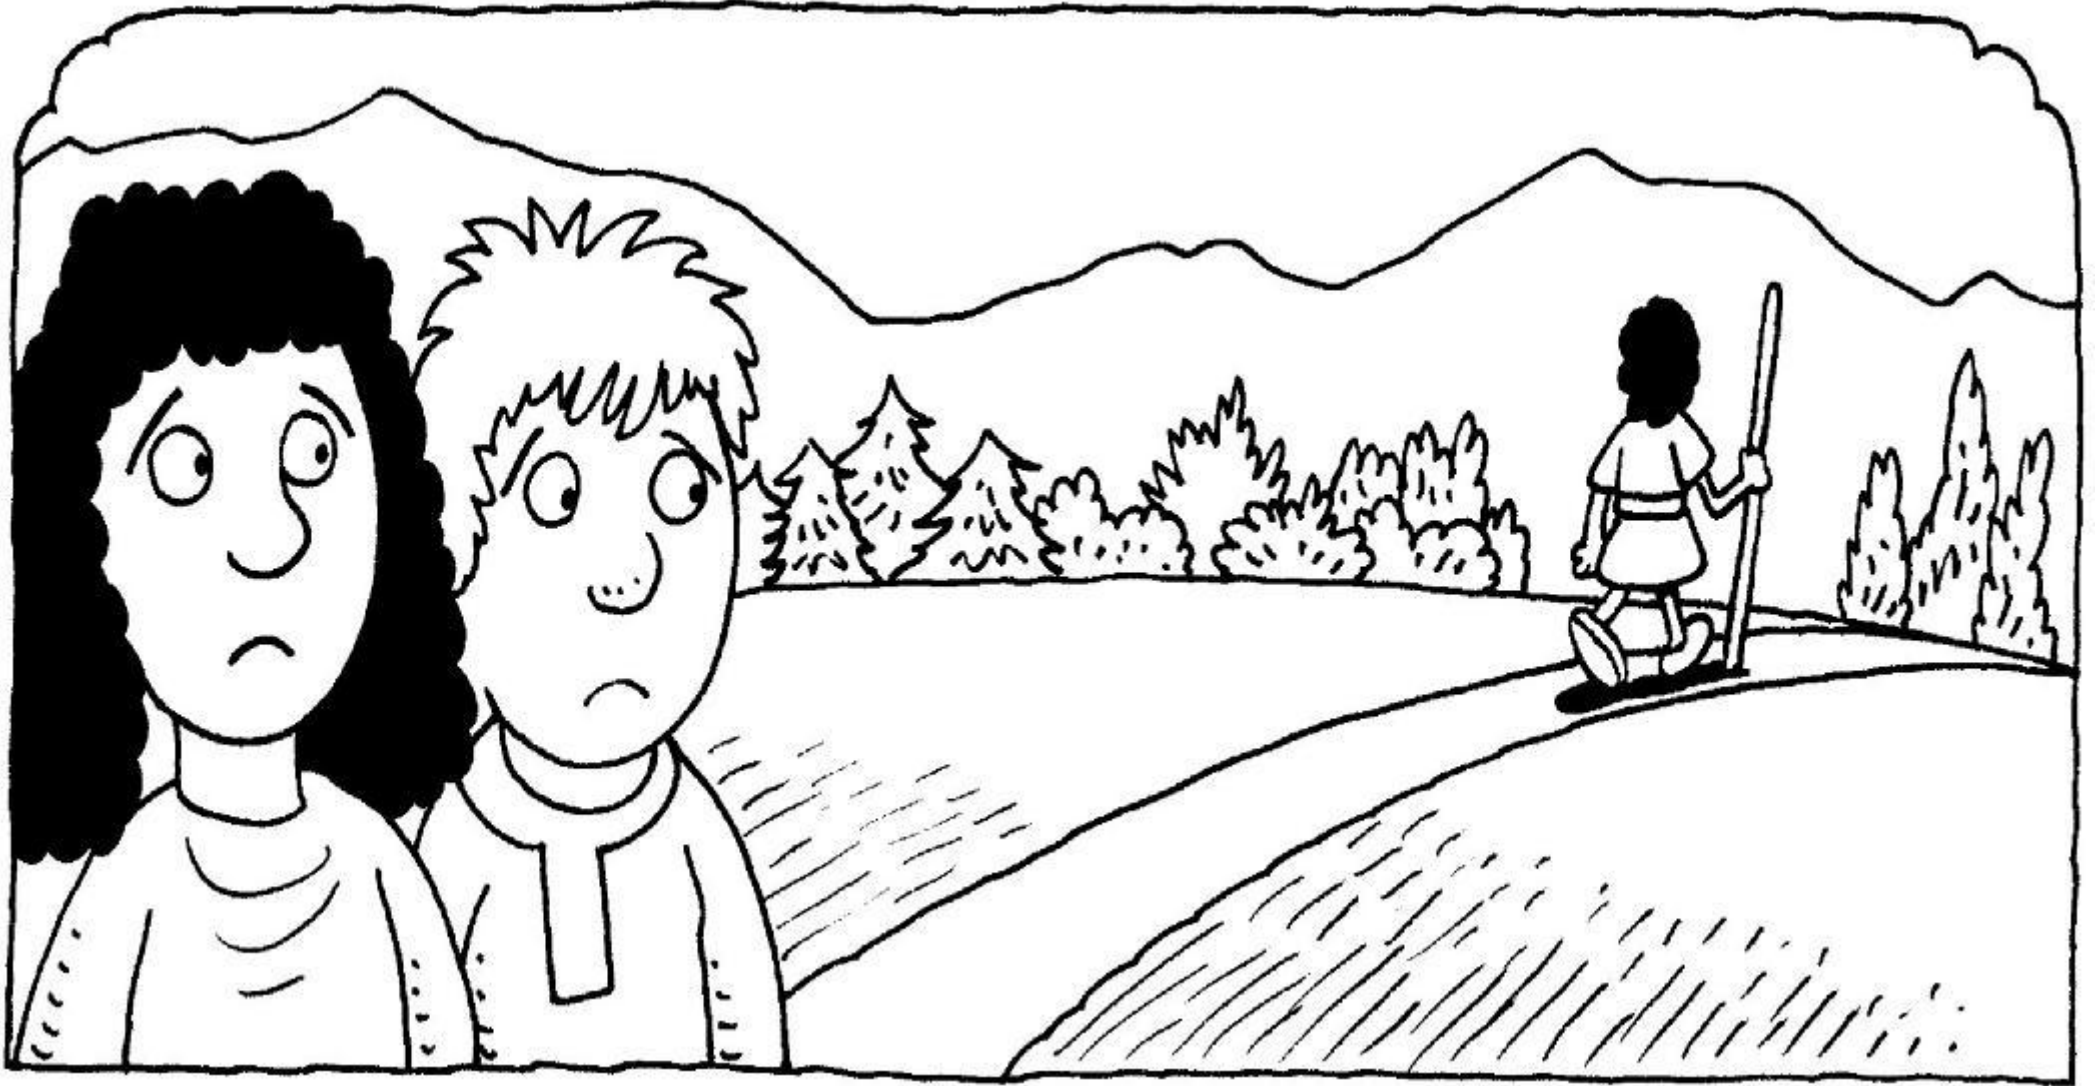

“I am the best.
I will teach my brother a lesson.”

Cain was so angry
that he hit his brother Abel
very hard and he died.
Cain thought no one would ever know.

But God sees and knows everything.
“Where is your brother?” God asked Cain.
“Am I supposed to know where my brother is at every moment?” Cain replied.

Because Cain had done such a bad thing,
God sent him away
to live in another country.
God doesn't want us to hurt each other.
