

Because Cain had done such a bad thing,
God sent him away
to live in another country.
God doesn't want us to hurt each other.

8

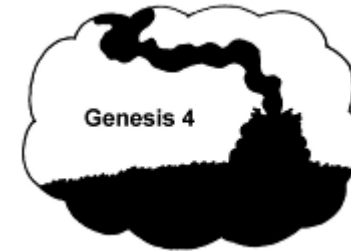

Because Cain had done such a bad thing,
God sent him away
to live in another country.
God doesn't want us to hurt each other.

8

Cain Where Is Your Brother?

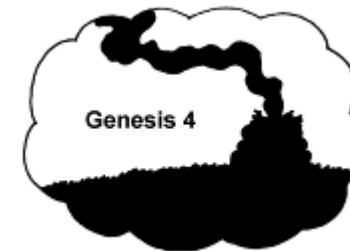

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

1

Cain Where Is Your Brother?

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

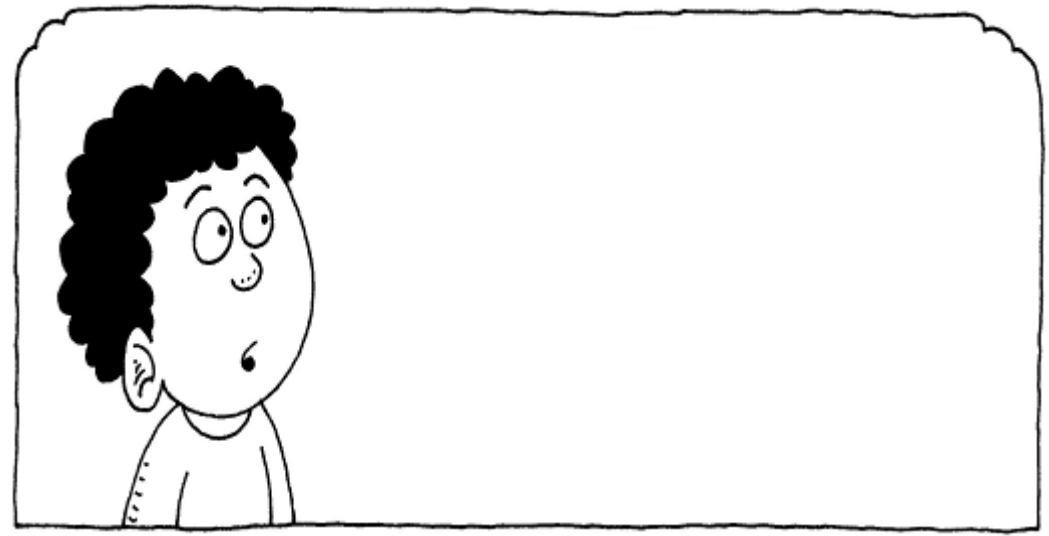

1

Adam and Eve had two boys.
Abel the younger brother,
loved his sheep.
He took a lamb to give to God.

2

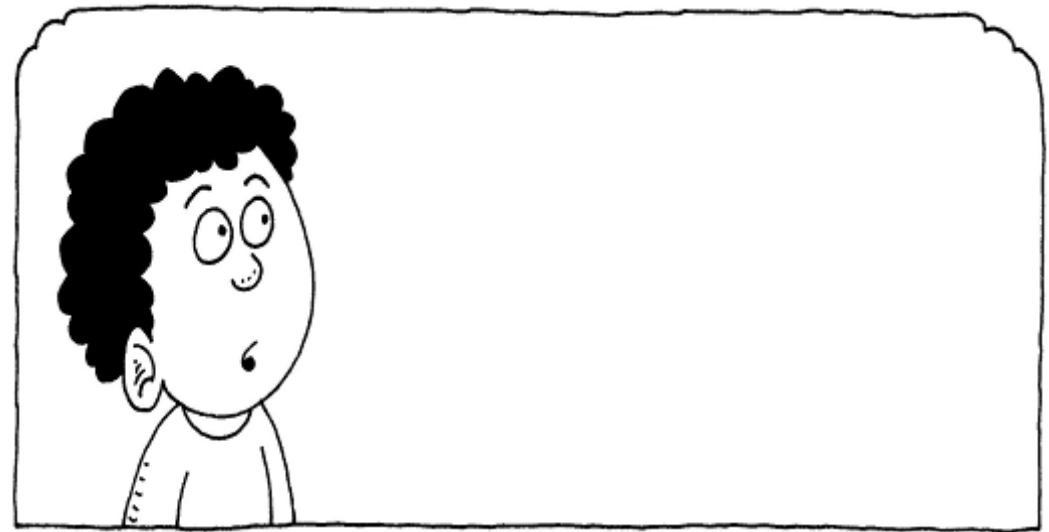

But God sees and knows everything.
“Where is your brother?” God asked Cain.
“Am I supposed to know
where my bother is at every moment?” Cain replied.

7

Adam and Eve had two boys.
Abel, the younger brother,
loved his sheep.
He took a lamb to give to God.

2

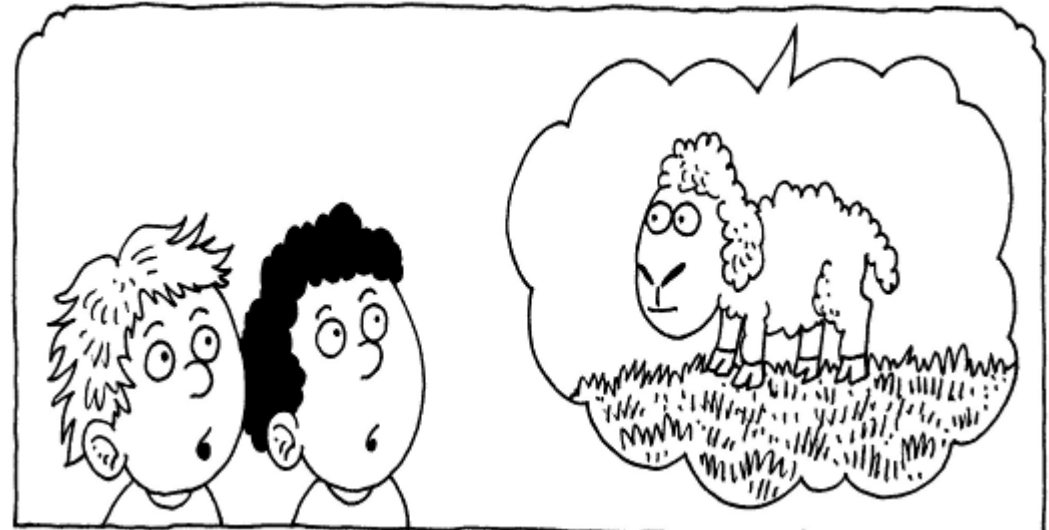

But God sees and knows everything.
“Where is your brother?” God asked Cain.
“Am I supposed to know
where my bother is at every moment?” Cain replied.

7

Cain was so angry
that he hit his brother Abel
very hard and he died.
Cain thought no one would ever know.

6

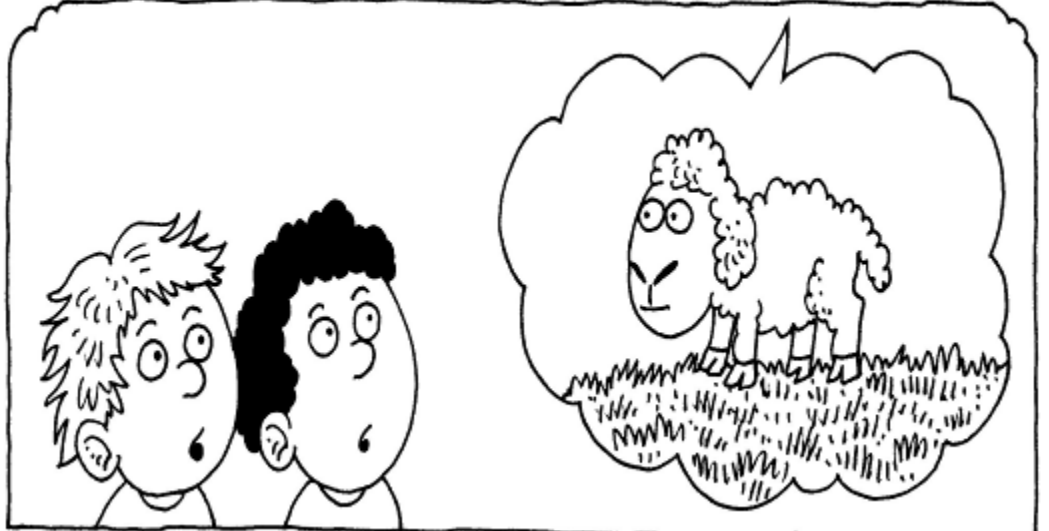

God saw how much
Abel loved the lamb
and that he had given the best he had
as a present to God.

3

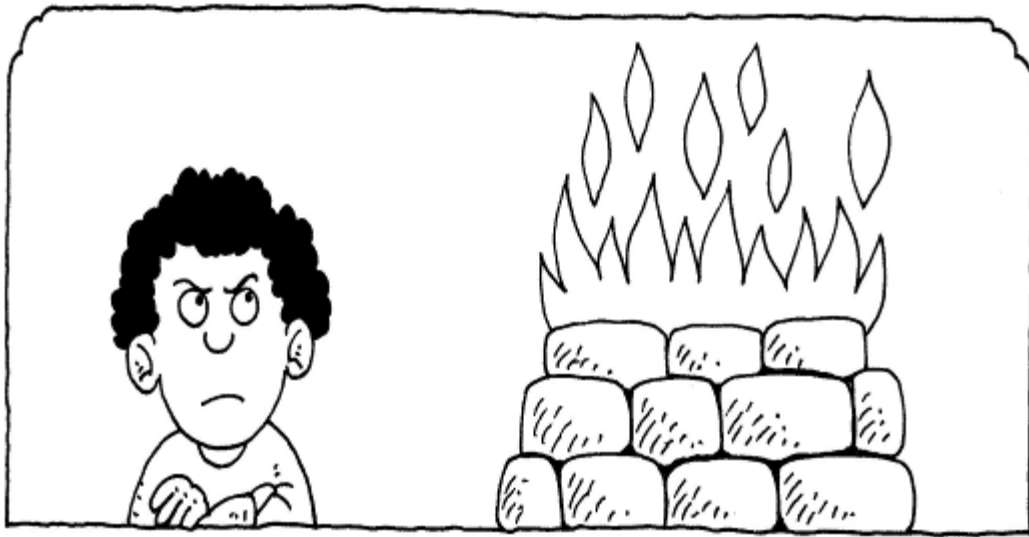

Cain was so angry
that he hit his brother Abel
very hard and he died.
Cain thought no one would ever know.

6

God saw how much
Abel loved the lamb
and that he had given the best he had
as a present to God.

3

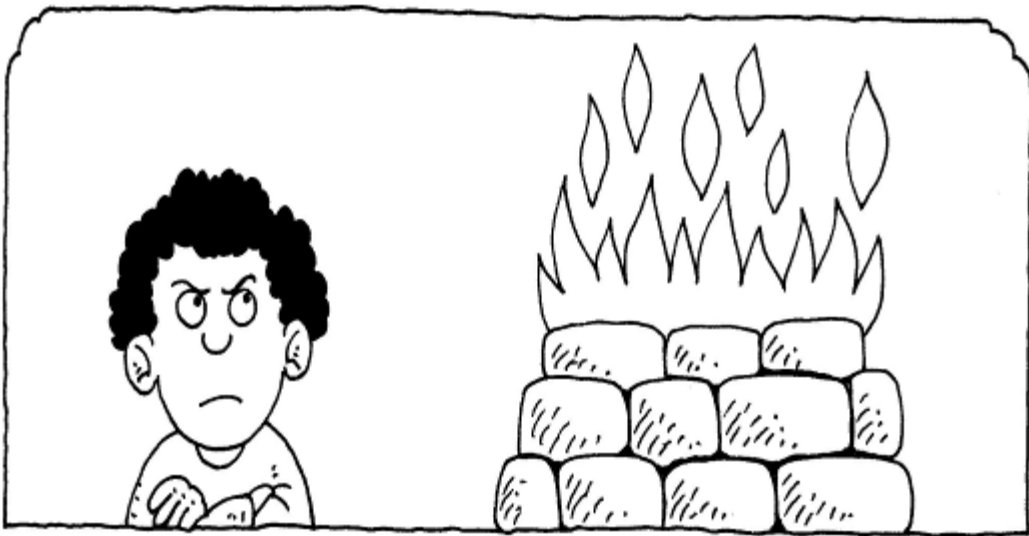

Cain, the older brother, knew that God had been pleased with his younger brother's gift of a lamb. It made him jealous of his brother.

4

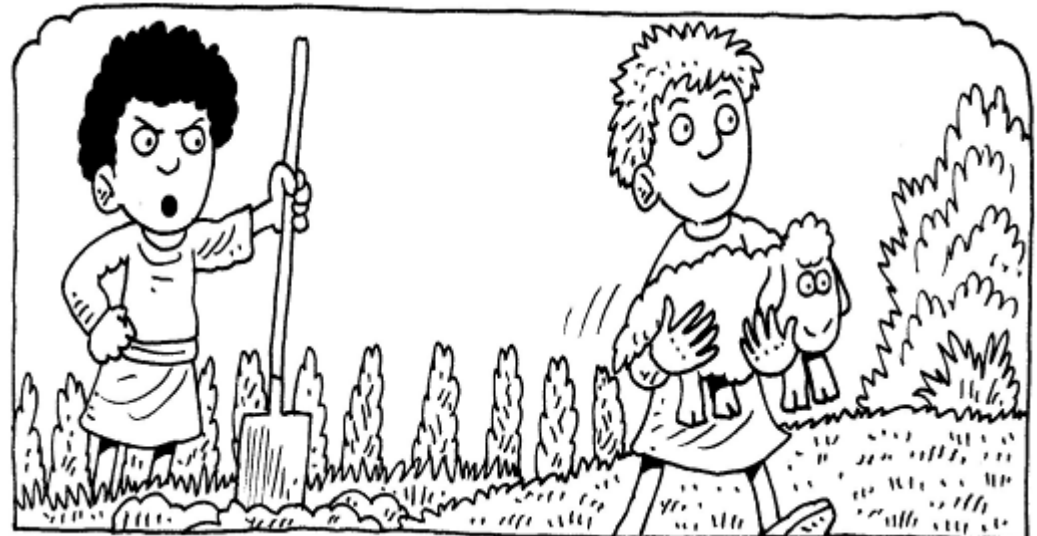

"I work hard and God should be pleased with me," he thought. "I am the best. I will teach my brother a lesson."

5

Cain, the older brother, knew that God had been pleased with his younger brother's gift of a lamb. It made him jealous of his brother.

4

"I work hard and God should be pleased with me," he thought. "I am the best. I will teach my brother a lesson."

5