

Because Cain had done such a bad thing,
God sent him away
to live in another country.
God doesn't want us to hurt each other.

Cain Where Is Your Brother?

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Because Cain had done such a bad thing,
God sent him away
to live in another country.
God doesn't want us to hurt each other.

Cain Where Is Your Brother?

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Adam and Eve had two boys.
Abel, the younger brother,
loved his sheep.
He took a lamb to give to God.

2

But God sees and knows everything.
"Where is your brother?" God asked Cain.
"Am I supposed to know
where my bother is at every moment?" Cain replied.

7

Adam and Eve had two boys.
Abel, the younger brother,
loved his sheep.
He took a lamb to give to God.

2

But God sees and knows everything.
"Where is your brother?" God asked Cain.
"Am I supposed to know
where my bother is at every moment?" Cain replied.

7

Cain was so angry
that he hit his brother Abel
very hard and he died.
Cain thought no one would ever know.

6

God saw how much
Abel loved the lamb
and that he had given the best he had
as a present to God.

3

Cain was so angry
that he hit his brother Abel
very hard and he died.
Cain thought no one would ever know.

6

God saw how much
Abel loved the lamb
and that he had given the best he had
as a present to God.

3

Cain, the older brother, knew that God had been pleased with his younger brother's gift of a lamb. It made him jealous of his brother.

4

"I work hard and God should be pleased with me," he thought. "I am the best. I will teach my brother a lesson."

5

Cain, the older brother, knew that God had been pleased with his younger brother's gift of a lamb. It made him jealous of his brother.

4

"I work hard and God should be pleased with me," he thought. "I am the best. I will teach my brother a lesson."

5