King Saul was jealous of David.
One day he heard where David was hiding,
so he took three thousand soldiers and went to catch him.

After the King left the cave David shouted, “King Saul, I could have killed you,
while you were sleeping, but I only cut your coat. See how close I was.”

But David didn't want to hurt the King.
He just wanted King Saul to stop chasing him.
So, he took out his knife and cut a piece of material from the King's clothes.

But King Saul was very tired and went into the same cave to rest, while his soldiers stood guard outside.
David and his men kept very quiet.

When King Saul was fast asleep,
David's men whispered,
"Here is your chance!
Kill your enemy, before he hurts you!"
