

Elijah and Elisha

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

The great man of God, Elijah, knew that his work on earth was finished.
“God had chosen you, Elisha,
to do his work when I have gone,” he said.

“Stay here. I am going to heaven today.”

“I will not leave you,” Elisha said.

They walked to the town of Bethel.

“Stay here,” said Elijah.

“I am going to heaven today.”
“I will not leave you,” Elisha said.
They walked to the town of Jericho.
“Stay here,” said Elijah.

When they came to the river Jordan,
Elijah hit the water with his cloak.
God made a dry path to walk over.
“Stay here,” said Elijah.

Elijah's work was finished.
God sent a swirling wind
to take Elijah to heaven.
His cloak fell to the ground.

Elisha picked up the cloak.
He prayed that God
would be with him.
Elisha went to tell people about God.

At the river Jordan, Elisha hit the water with Elijah's cloak and God made a dry path.
God was with great prophet, Elisha too.