

Joseph loved God.
Joseph looked after his family.
God wants us to be kind to everyone,
even if they are not kind to us first.

Joseph Is Kind To His Brothers

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

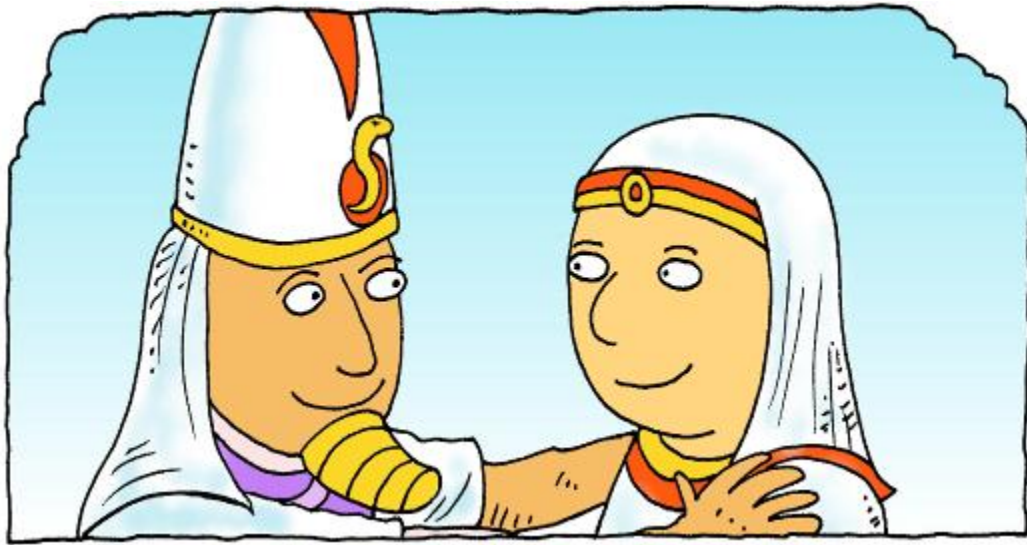

Joseph loved God.
Joseph looked after his family.
God wants us to be kind to everyone,
even if they are not kind to us first.

Joseph Is Kind To His Brothers

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

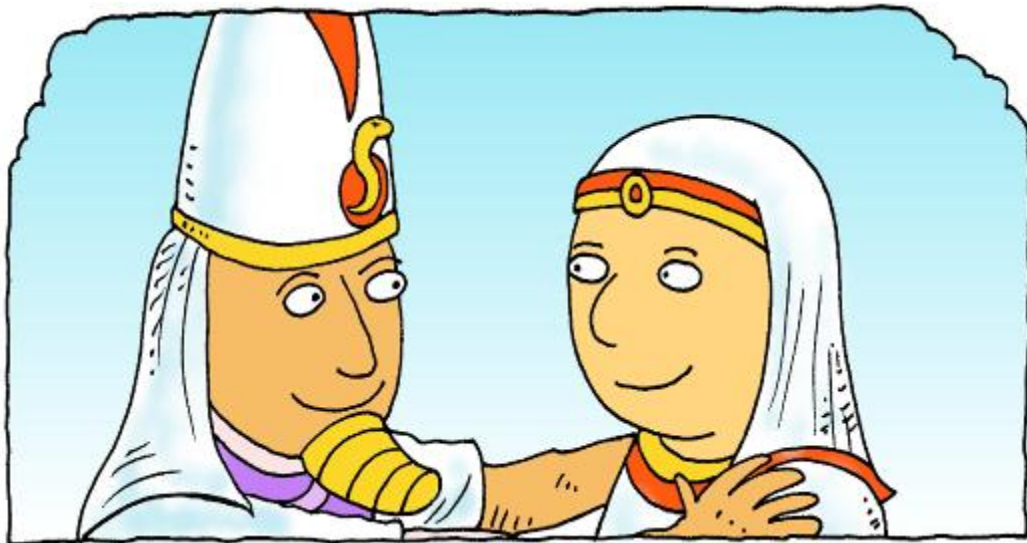

Joseph's brothers were not kind to him.
They sold him to King Pharaoh in Egypt.
Joseph was King Pharaoh's best helper.
He knew that God was with him where ever he was.

Yes! Joseph gave corn to his brothers and gave some to them to take home to his dad.
He forgave his brothers for being unkind.

Joseph's brothers were not kind to him.
They sold him to King Pharaoh in Egypt.
Joseph was King Pharaoh's best helper.
He knew that God was with him where ever he was.

Yes! Joseph gave corn to his brothers and gave some to them to take
home to his dad.
He forgave his brothers for being unkind.

Joseph's brothers had no corn left to eat.
They were hungry, so their dad sent them
to buy corn from King Pharaoh.
Would Joseph be kind to his brothers?

6

One day Joseph was put in jail for something
he did not do. In jail he was good and kind.
Everyone knew that Joseph loved God
and did what was good and right.

3

Joseph's brothers had no corn left to eat.
They were hungry, so their dad sent them
to buy corn from King Pharaoh.
Would Joseph be kind to his brothers?

6

One day Joseph was put in jail for something
he did not do. In jail he was good and kind.
Everyone knew that Joseph loved God
and did what was good and right.

One night King Pharaoh had a dream.
No one could help him understand it.
He sent for Joseph. Joseph asked God to help him understand the dream.

God told Joseph, "Tell King Pharaoh
to get lots and lots of corn because soon people in other countries won't have enough to feed their families."

One night King Pharaoh had a dream.
No one could help him understand it.
He sent for Joseph. Joseph asked God to help him understand the dream.

God told Joseph, "Tell King Pharaoh
to get lots and lots of corn because
soon people in other countries won't have enough to feed their families."