

If you do these things, your life
will be happy and peaceful.
God wants us to love Him
and to love others.

Moses And The Ten Commandments

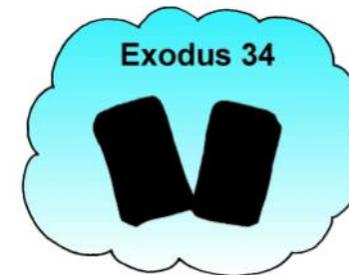

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

If you do these things, your life
will be happy and peaceful.
God wants us to love Him
and to love others.

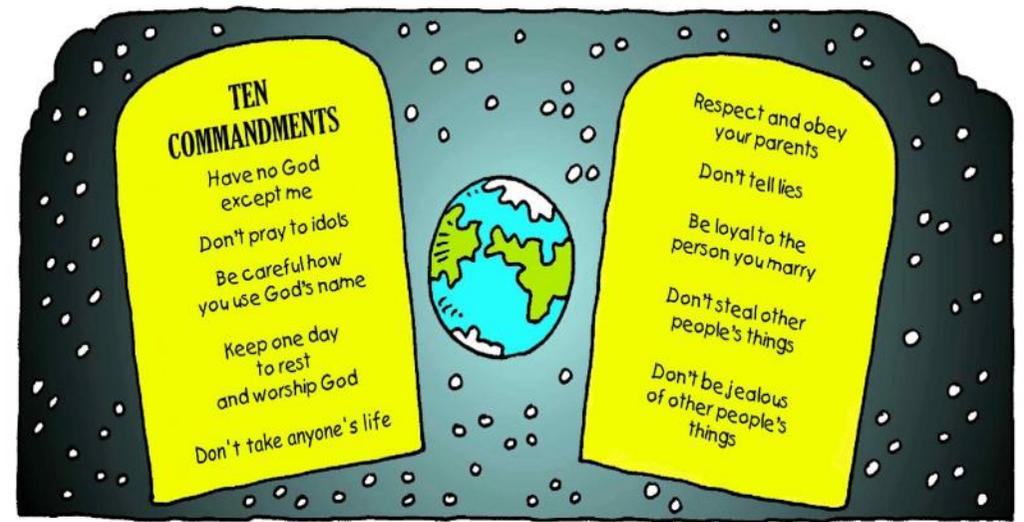

Moses And The Ten Commandments

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

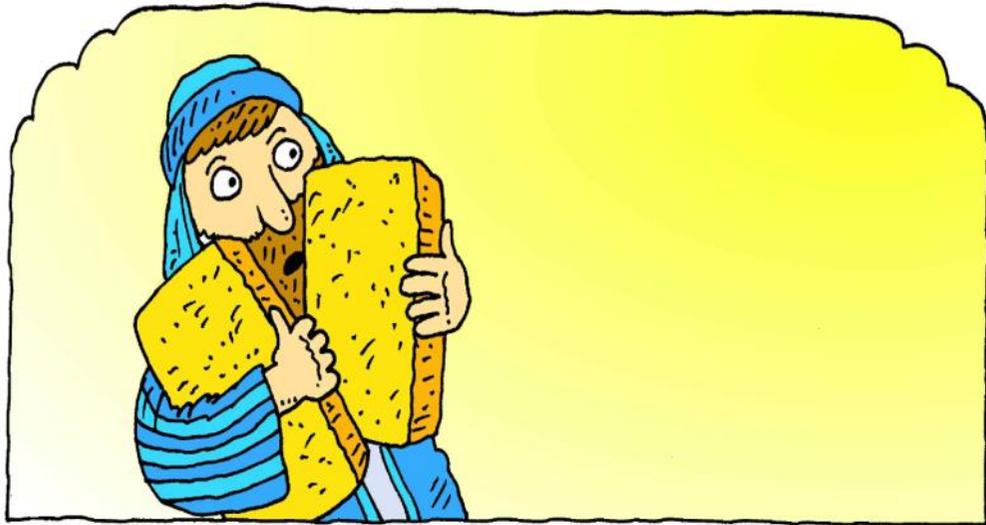

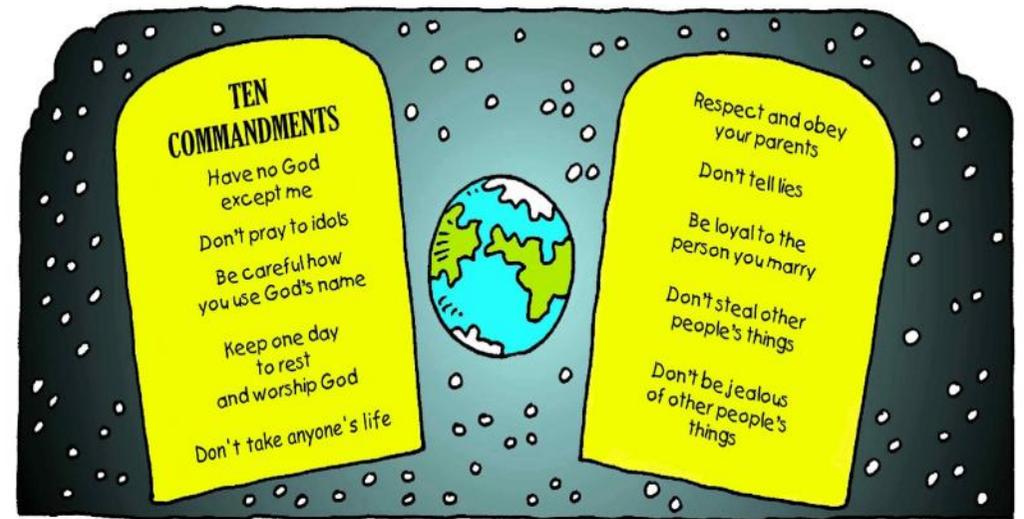

Moses climbed up the mountain to talk to God, carrying two big, flat stones. All the people waited at the bottom of the mountain.

Now they will know what is the right thing to do and how to live good lives." God's rules are called the Ten Commandments.

Moses climbed up the mountain to talk to God, carrying two big, flat stones. All the people waited at the bottom of the mountain.

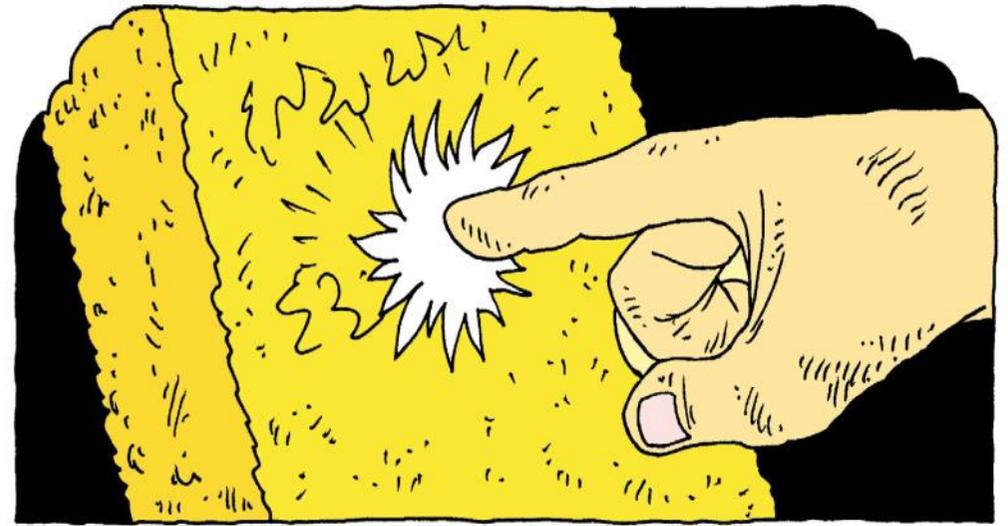

"Now they will know what is the right thing to do and how to live good lives." God's rules are called the Ten Commandments.

Moses went back up the mountain
again, with two new stones.
God gave Moses the new rules again.
“Tell the people to do these good rules,” God said.

6

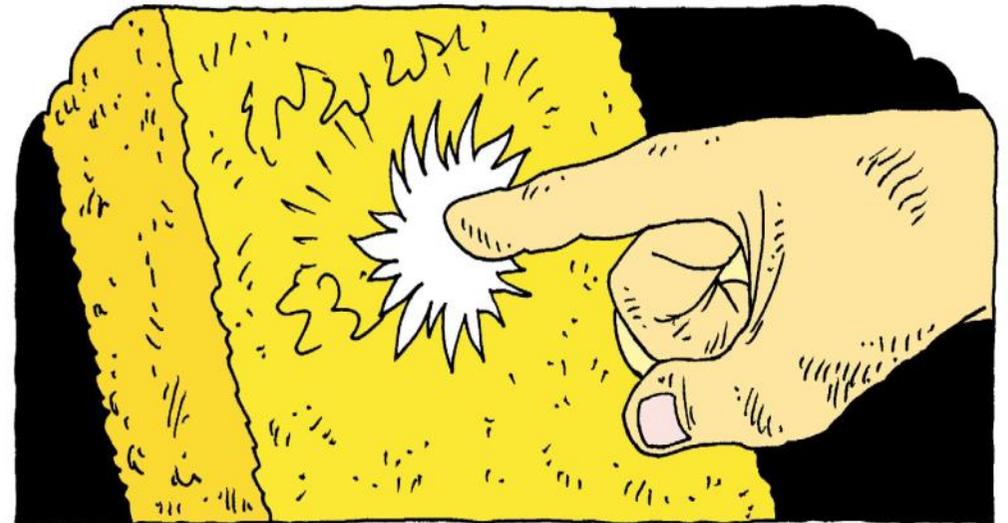

God wrote His rules on the stones.
God’s rules tell people that God is the only real God to love and trust and how to do what is good and right, to other people.

3

Moses went back up the mountain
again, with two new stones.
God gave Moses the new rules again.
“Tell the people to do these good rules,” God said.

6

God wrote His rules on the stones.
God’s rules tell people that God is the only real God to love and trust and how to do what is good and right, to other people.

3

Moses was away a long time.
“Let’s make a God we can see, out of gold
treasure,” they said. But the gold calf could not answer their prayers.

4

Moses saw the people praying to their idol.
He broke the stones God had written on.
Then everyone remembered how God
had saved them and they were sorry.

5

Moses was away a long time.
“Let’s make a God we can see, out of gold
treasure,” they said. But the gold calf
could not answer their prayers.

4

Moses saw the people praying to their idol.
He broke the stones God had written on.
Then everyone remembered how God
had saved them and they were sorry.

5