

He went straight home with them.
Jesus always listened to his parents and obeyed them.
And Mary never forgot how much Jesus loved
God's word, even when he was a little boy.

He went straight home with them.
Jesus always listened to his parents and obeyed them.
And Mary never forgot how much Jesus loved
God's word, even when he was a little boy.

Jesus Gets Lost

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Jesus Gets Lost

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

When Jesus was twelve years old he went with his neighbours and parents, Joseph and Mary, to the Temple (church) at Jerusalem, just as they did every year.

2

At last they found Jesus in the Temple with the teachers! Joseph and Mary told him how worried they were when they couldn't find him.

"Didn't you know I was in my Father's house?" said Jesus

7

When Jesus was twelve years old he went with his neighbours and parents, Joseph and Mary, to the Temple (church) at Jerusalem, just as they did every year.

2

At last they found Jesus in the Temple with the teachers! Joseph and Mary told him how worried they were when they couldn't find him.

"Didn't you know I was in my Father's house?" said Jesus

7

After a while they went to find Jesus,
but no-one had seen him all day.
“He must have been left behind,” said Joseph
and they hurried back to look for him.

6

When he got to the Jerusalem
Jesus went to the Temple.
He started asking questions and talking about God with the wise old teachers.

3

After a while they went to find Jesus,
but no-one had seen him all day.
“He must have been left behind,” said Joseph
and they hurried back to look for him.

6

When he got to the Jerusalem
Jesus went to the Temple.
He started asking questions and talking
about God with the wise old teachers.

3

Jesus listened to them teaching and asked them questions too. They were amazed at how much this boy understood. He understood everything in the Bible!

4

When it was time to go home all the families went together. Joseph and Mary thought Jesus was walking with some of his friends.

5

Jesus listened to them teaching and asked them questions too. They were amazed at how much this boy understood. He understood everything in the Bible!

4

When it was time to go home all the families went together. Joseph and Mary thought Jesus was walking with some of his friends.

5