

When I am alone I think about Jesus.
I want to be more like Him - having fun with family and friends; respecting my parents and being helpful and kind.

1

Jesus was a child like me.
Joseph and his mother Mary took good care of him and just like every child, he loved riding on their donkey.

2

When He was old enough, Jesus went to school. Joseph and his mother Mary were proud to hear Him reading the Scriptures.

Jesus was the oldest child in the family. He had two brothers and some sisters
and he loved them all.

Joseph was a carpenter and when Jesus was a boy he learnt
to make things from wood too.
Jesus liked to help his friends.
