

Jesus Wrote In The Dust

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

The Scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been cheating on her husband to Jesus to judge, but they were really trying to get Jesus into trouble.

The woman felt ashamed and frightened.
She knew she had broken one of God's Commandments and that she would be punished.

Jesus said, “Anyone who has NEVER broken God’s Laws should be the one to judge her.”
He wrote in the dust with his finger words like LYING, STEALING, CHEATING, JEALOUSY.

Every single person began to feel guilty about things they had done. No one at all is perfect. One by one they left. There was no one at all to condemn, or judge the woman.

Jesus stood up and asked the woman,
“Where are the people who judge you?”
She replied, “No one does, my Lord.”
Then Jesus said, “Neither do I.”

“Go home and don’t behave like that again.”
Forgiven and free the woman went on her way with her heart full of joy and hope.
Jesus had saved her and given her a new life.

John, one of Jesus' disciples, wrote about this true story in the Bible.
It teaches us not to criticize and judge other people because we are not perfect ourselves.