

Matthew Follows Jesus

By Jill Kemp

Matthew had an important job collecting money for the king.
He was called a Tax Collector.
People didn't like paying him money.

Matthew was clever and he was rich.
But being very clever
and being very rich
didn't make Matthew happy.

One day Matthew saw Jesus
walking along the road.
Jesus made sick people better
and told stories about God.

Jesus saw Matthew working at his table.
He come right over to talk to him.
“Matthew, come and follow me.” Jesus said.
Matthew was so surprised!

What would Matthew do?
Would he leave his money?
Would he leave his job
to follow Jesus?

Matthew got up straight away
and followed Jesus.
He became one of Jesus helpers.
Following Jesus made Matthew very happy.

Matthew wrote down many things
he saw Jesus do and heard him say.
His words are in the Bible
in the book of Matthew.
