1

One day Jesus was invited to have a meal at the home of a well known Pharisee. Everyone was watching him. He told this story to the Pharisee.

The man was disappointed and said, "Go into the streets and lanes of the city and bring the poor, disabled and blind to my feast."

Another person who was invited said he couldn't come to the feast because had just got married.
People were just too busy to come.

"A certain man prepared a great feast. When everything was ready he sent his servant to invite his friends to come.

But everyone who was invited made excuses. The first person said, "I cannot come because I have bought a piece of land and I need to go and see it."

4

The next person who was invited to the feast replied, "I have bought five oxen and I need to see if they work as a team ploughing, so I cannot come."
