

The story of the woman and her gift
will never be forgotten.”
And now you know about it,
over 2,000 years later.

The story of the woman and her gift
will never be forgotten.”
And now you know about it,
over 2,000 year later.

Precious Ointment

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Precious Ointment

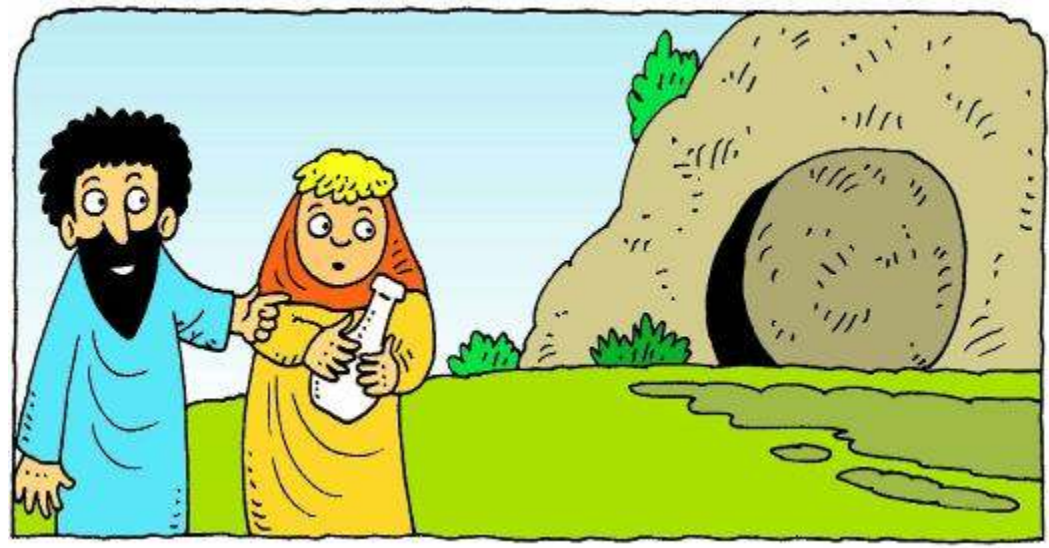

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Jesus and his friends
went to stay at Simon's the Leper's house,
in the town of Bethany.

2

This woman knows that soon I will be
dead and buried," said Jesus.
"She gave it from a loving heart.

7

Jesus and his friends
went to stay at
Simon's the Leper's house,
in the town of Bethany.

2

This woman knows
that soon I will be
dead and buried," said Jesus.
"She gave it from a loving heart.

7

Jesus did not think it was a waste.
"Leave her alone," he said.
"She did a good thing.
I really appreciate her gift.

6

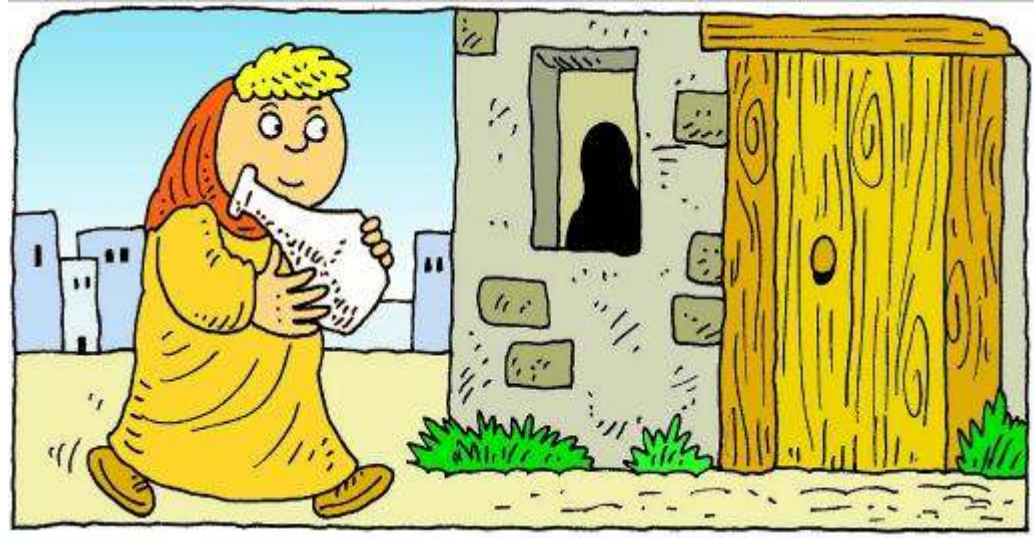

While they were there,
a woman carrying
a white alabaster jar,
came to see Jesus.

3

Jesus did not think it was a waste.
"Leave her alone," he said.
"She did a good thing.
I really appreciate her gift.

6

While they were there,
a woman carrying
a white alabaster jar,
came to see Jesus.

3

She tipped some
very expensive ointment,
from the jar,
on to Jesus' head.

4

His friends were annoyed.
"What a waste of money!" they said.
"It could have been sold
and the money given to help poor people.

5

She tipped some
very expensive ointment,
from the jar,
on to Jesus' head.

4

His friends were annoyed.
"What a waste of money!" they said.
"It could have been sold
and the money given to help poor people.

5