

The Nobleman's Sick Son

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

An important man had a very, very sick son.
He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him
to come and see his son and make him well.

“Jesus, my boy is very sick.
Please come to my house and do a miracle.
If you come to see him you can make my boy better, before it is too late,” cried the man.

“Go back home, your son is well again.
I don’t need to come to your house.
Just believe what I say.”
It was 1 o'clock when Jesus said that.

The man hurried home.
He believed that Jesus really had made his son better and that what Jesus had told him was true.

When he got to his house
he saw his son waiting at the door!
He was not sick any more!
The man was so happy to see his boy.

“What time did you get better?” he asked his son.

“It was at 1 o’clock when I suddenly felt alright.

I got out of my bed and I was feeling completely well.” said the boy.

The man was so happy.
He believed in Jesus with all his heart and he told everyone how Jesus had made his son well, without even coming to see him!
