

Two Blind Men

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Two men who were blind
and could not see at all,
sat beside the road waiting for people to pass by.

They could not go to work to buy food.
“Money for the blind,”
they called out, whenever they heard people coming.

When Jesus and his friends came past, the two men called for Jesus to help them.
But Jesus' helpers told them to be quiet!

But Jesus was kind.
He cared about the two blind men.
“What do you want me to do for you?”
Jesus asked them.

The two friends had only one thing they wanted
Jesus to do for them.
“Jesus we want to see!” they said.

Jesus touched their eyes.
Straight away they could see!
The very first person
they saw was Jesus!

Then the two men began to follow Jesus.
Jesus' friends saw him do this miracle and Matthew wrote about it in the Bible.
